Property Description

Casa del Toro is an incredibly special home and offering here in the Manuel antonio area. This three bedroom, three and one half bathroom luxury rental home is a fantastic turn key ready investment or private luxury estate home. The property, which measures over 1200 meters in size is located in the Pajaro Azul subdivision and offers panoramic views of the Fila Chonta Mountain range and the Pacific Coastline. The home is the last on a dead end street and has a natural preserve to one side that creates a unique sense of privacy and serenity but in a home that is just minutes away from Marina Pez Vela and all the activities that make the Manuel Antonio area so popular. The home is one of the only ones in the area with a flowing single story floor plan. While there are steps to access the home from the covered carports, once upstairs, you have three spacious bedrooms, each with its own on suite bath and two of which offer beautiful views to the mountains and Pacific.
