Property Description

If you have been thinking about living in southern Costa Rica on an income producing property, this is one way to do it with a lower entry threshold and plenty of space to expand as your vision grows. There are reasons to take a look at this opportunity: a) The lot is large and open. You won't have to worry about clearing spaces for your lodgings. b) The property is on the main road through Ojochal for optimal visibility and easy access with any type of vehicle or on foot. c) There is a small, comfortable villa already on site, so you have a place to stay while you dream, plan and execute. It's easy to imagine several cabins for long or short term rental, built around landscaped grounds, a little cafe and a pool. Plant more fruit trees and plants, raise organic produce you can harvest yourself....Ojochal is nice mix of expats and Ticos and is well known as the "foodie" capital of the whole region.
