Property Description

Nestled on the peak of the Sierra Costera mountain range, Chateau Montage is an exclusively luxurious retreat unlike any other. With gently cascading slopes on every side, your panoramic views from this expansive enclave encompasses tropical valleys and distant waterfalls, the endless Pacific, and stretch down along the spectacular golden sands of the Costa Rican coastline. Mirroring its magnificent setting, Chateau Montage's expansive living spaces have been designed to form distinctly intimate experiences, each designed to make the most of the luxuries this home and its location have to offer. From wrap around terraces and rooftop decks for entertaining, to secluded private pools to take in the magnificent sunsets, Chateau Montage gives you the ultimate in elevated living. The expansive main house that architecturally flows outward toward the stunning views of the Pacific Ocean, the iconic Whale's Tale, and the cloud forest that capture your attention from every room in the house.
