Property Description

Light, airy and modern, this eye-catching three-bedroom home features multivalent spaces that are open to your personal interpretation. The baseline features of this home are sumptuous and sensational, ready to inspire and uplift you while you make this house your own. Situated on one of the highest points of residence in Ojochal, this remarkable home sits on 10 acres of the pristine jungle with one acre of manicured garden landscaping for ease of living and to maintain the beautiful ocean and mountain views. Facing the Osa Peninsula and the southern horizon, this property receives beautiful mountain sunrises and dynamic coastal views stretching for hundreds of miles. This home is truly remote-feeling, set back into the foot of the Talamanca Mountains, with pristine primary rainforest rising above and enveloping this home in the biodiverse wildlife for which this region is world-renown. Every space in this home is unique in dimensions and the essence that exudes, while the aesthetic quality of this structure is consistent, blending well from one space to the next.
