Property Description

Enjoy some of the best ocean views you will find in the entire country. Nestled on top of the mountain near the popular Villa Caletas Hotel, you will enjoy stunning views with lush tropical rainforest backdrops. This home is pre-construction and offers a unique opportunity to purchase in at an incredible value. Secure community features common area pools, gym, spa all with HOAs under $400 per month. The residence extends a warm invitation with its expansive double-height living area, seamlessly connecting the living, dining, and kitchen spaces to a terrace boasting a secluded hot tub and a lush garden. Ascending to the first level, you'll discover a bedroom featuring an en-suite bathroom and a unique entrance accessible from outside the house. This design element ensures the utmost privacy and convenience for individuals with limited mobility or those seeking a separate space within the rental property.
