Property Description

This beautiful furnished turnkey pool home is located in Costa del Sol, a highly sought after beach side community on the Central Pacific Coast in Costa Rica! It features three spacious bedrooms, with a large master complete with en suite bath, and two guest rooms on the other side of the house sharing a beautiful bath located between them with easy access for both. The garage has a carport in front so two vehicles can be sheltered from the sun, and the landscaping is lush and tropical and manicured so that the home feels very private. The home features a screened front porch, as well as a very large screened back porch, complete with wood ceiling, ceiling fans, wood look tile deck and a gorgeous tropical themed mural! This huge back tropical entertainment porch overlooks a beautiful lap pool that runs the entire length of the back yard! The floor plan in the center of the home is spacious and open, with ceramic tile throughout.
