Property Description

Are you dreaming of owning a bed and breakfast in the jungles of Costa Rica? This fantastic income opportunity features ocean, mountain, and jungle views from a large main house that has two full apartments, and there is an additional home with two full apartments on a lower level. This great property lays out perfectly to comfortably host twelve guests (or more if the owner's suite is rented). It is a bed and breakfast experience that your guests will love because of the intimacy with nature that this quiet, tranquil, and secluded location in Ojochal provides. This property is located near the end of a quiet road in a gated community in Ojochal, Costa Rica. It is a nature-lovers property that borders a river, which welcomes abundant wildlife. The property is home to a resident three-toed sloth, plus howlers, capuchins, squirrel monkeys, coatis, green iguanas, anteaters, agoutis, and more.
