Property Description

Nestled amidst the captivating beauty of Costa Rica's southern zone, this extraordinary 8.67-acre property offers a rare opportunity to create a dream sanctuary. Perched at an elevation of 500 meters, the estate provides breathtaking vistas of lush jungle, shimmering ocean waters, and the iconic Whale Tail reef at Marino Ballena National Park. Whether you dream of establishing a luxurious retreat center, a charming bed and breakfast, or a private haven for your family, this property provides a perfect canvas to bring those visions to life. The primary residence harmoniously blends elegance and natural beauty, designed with an eye for detail and comfort. The expansive primary suite is a true haven, featuring two full bathrooms, a cozy seating area with unparalleled ocean views, and rich hardwood floors that add warmth and sophistication. The private balcony seamlessly integrates indoor and outdoor living, immersing residents in the surrounding beauty.
