Property Description

Composed of two lots with panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean and the mountains. Surrounded by tropical forest with 3 plantations and moderate topography. Situated in the gated community of Portasol Living, which features nature trails, waterfalls, natural river swimming holes and a collections of neighbors who truly make this a community. The community has 24/7 gated entry-way, along video camera surveillance along the internal private roads of the community. For those looking for the perfect blend of an ocean view home while surrounded by the rainforest; this is the perfect lot for you.
