Property Description

Tranquil Luxury Retreat with Stunning Ocean Views in Uvita This home has great potential written all over it and is one of our favorite investment opportunities on the market. It does need a little TLC, but it has great bones to work with and is located in an area with million-dollar homes. The fundamentals are here with a great location, ocean view, and the potential to transform this property at minimal expense. Escape to your private sanctuary in the heart of Uvita, Costa Rica, where practicality living meets natural beauty. Conveniently located just a brief 5-minute drive from the main coastal highway, this exquisite 4-bedroom, 4.5-bathroom home offers the perfect blend of convenience and tranquility. As you arrive, you'll be greeted by easy access on a well-maintained concrete road that leads directly to the graveled driveway. Step inside to discover a spacious and nicely crafted residence that includes warmth and coziness at every turn.
