Property Description

Casa del Bosque reflects thoughtful design, expert craftsmanship, and a deep connection with the natural beauty of Costa Rica. Quality, comfort, and ease of living were carefully planned in every detail. The house is oriented for privacy while the open floor plan prioritizes seamless flow between indoor and outdoor spaces. This fully furnished three-bedroom house on two levels features superior materials throughout its 2,500 square feet. Local hardwoods were used for rafters, ceilings, cabinetry, interior doors, and furniture. The flooring is Italian ceramic tile and expansive granite countertops highlight a modern kitchen with a massive island that is perfect for hosting. Decorative wrought iron and stained-glass exterior doors and stair railings add creative form to everyday function adding to the artistic flair of Casa del Bosque. A large open-air verandah is a perfect spot to gather, connecting the guest suite to the main living space, while the two screened porches provide inviting spaces to relax or entertain.
