Property Description

Perched up on a hill and surrounded by lush jungle, this villa offers a tranquil escape with breathtaking panoramic views of the ocean. Situated approximately 400m up the Calle Buenos Aires road, this villa provides both privacy and convenience, with popular restaurants, local shops, and the beach just a short three-minute drive down the hill. The villa features a thoughtfully designed, minimalist interior that embraces natural light and open space. Carefully curated, self-made furnishings and décor harmonize with the surrounding landscape, creating an atmosphere of elegance and serenity. The open-concept living area seamlessly integrates with the dining space and a fully equipped kitchen, making it an ideal setting for entertaining or enjoying meals together. Expansive windows and sliding doors allow for uninterrupted views of the ocean, enhancing the sense of connection to the outdoors.
