Property Description

This newly completed and elegant property includes a three-bedroom main house, a one-bedroom guest house, an infinity pool, a spacious jacuzzi, all nestled on more than 12,000 m² (3 acres) of land! Access to the property is through a paved driveway, with beautiful stone retaining walls that reflect the quality craftsmanship found throughout the estate. The guest house is fully independent from the main house and features one bedroom, a bathroom, a kitchen/dining area, a carport, and a small terrace offering stunning mountain views facing Atenas. The main house sits on a lower level and is entirely single-story. The very spacious open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area boasts soaring ceilings made from exotic wood, which is featured throughout the home. Large sliding glass doors connect this space directly to a vast and bright terrace with a high ceiling, making it the perfect indoor-outdoor living area.
