Property Description

Modern Nature-Lover's Retreat on the Mountainside of Uvita Tucked along the mountainside of Uvita — just past the famed bamboo forest and a series of crystal-clear swimming holes — this home offers a rare blend of privacy, accessibility, and pure nature. It's the kind of setting people dream about when they imagine life in Costa Rica: birdsong in the mornings, monkeys moving through the treetops, and a backdrop of protected rainforest that ensures your peace and privacy will always remain. Designed as a comfortable modern retreat, the three-bedroom, two-bath residence is sold turnkey and fully furnished, with high ceilings throughout that invite natural light and mountain breezes into each room. Every bedroom includes air conditioning, and the layout feels open and easy — ideal for full-time living, family escapes, or a nature-rich rental property. Outside, the property opens to a spacious front yard, a refreshing pool, and covered parking for two vehicles.
