Property Description

Casa Escondida: Tucked away among lush tropical landscapes just 10 minutes from Tamarindo, Casa Escondida is a remarkable private estate offering the perfect balance of seclusion, convenience, and luxury. Located only minutes from supermarkets, international schools, and the charming town of Santa Rosa, this unique property enjoys a privileged setting while remaining just 1 hour and 15 minutes from Liberia International Airport. Designed by renowned architect Scott Woods and thoughtfully crafted as a family compound, Casa Escondida is a property unlike any other in the area. Whether envisioned as a multigenerational estate, a luxury retreat center, a wellness destination, or a private sanctuary for family and friends, the possibilities are endless. Set on nearly one hectare of beautifully landscaped grounds, the estate is surrounded by mature fruit trees, native vegetation, and abundant wildlife.
