Property Description

Discover an extraordinary opportunity to own one of Costa Rica's most unique income-producing eco-tourism properties. This exceptional 12-hectare (29.6-acre) estate features approximately 2 kilometers (1.25 miles) of pristine Río Celeste river frontage, creating an unforgettable setting for adventure, nature, and investment. Currently operating as a successful tourism destination, the property offers thrilling river tubing adventures along the crystal waters of Río Celeste and an exhilarating seven-cable canopy zip-line course, with several lines soaring directly over the river and through the lush rainforest canopy. Visitors experience breathtaking scenery and one-of-a-kind views that make this destination truly unforgettable. Located just 1 kilometer from the paved main road, the property combines easy access with the privacy and natural beauty sought by eco-travelers and investors alike.
