Property Description

Private Modern Estate with Ocean Views from Every Room Welcome to Casa Delphines, a modern home perched 873 feet above sea level on 1.25 acres of tropical landscape; situated in a gated division of the neighborhood. This single level home provides easy living, without any sacrifices to style, views, or comfort! The house has been creatively designed showcasing ocean views in every room with a reserva that surrounds the property making it one of the most private homes in the area! Designed to embrace the indoor-outdoor lifestyle that defines Costa Rica luxury living, the resort-style pool terrace creates an immediate sense of relaxation. The expansive outdoor entertaining area features an infinity-edge swimming pool with built-in bench seating, multiple lounge spaces, bbq and professionally manicured gardens that provide both beauty and privacy. Upon entering the residence, guests are welcomed by a grand open-concept living space highlighted by soaring ceilings and an abundant natural light.
