Property Description

Barbacoas- Puriscal 3 BR Mountain View Home with Casita needs TLC. Set on 2.4 acres in the peaceful mountains of Puriscal, this panoramic estate offers a rare combination of privacy, views, versatility, and multiple living structures—ideal for full-time living, a family compound, or an income-producing retreat. The main residence, which is an old house so it needs TLC, features 320 m² of comfortable living space, including 3 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, a spacious kitchen, separate living and dining areas, an office, ceramic floors, a fireplace, a laundry room, and a two-car covered garage with an electric door. The upper-level suite includes its own bathroom, sitting area, and a large balcony with sweeping mountain and valley views. An independent one-bedroom casita provides additional space for guests or rental income, offering an open-concept layout with its own bathroom and kitchen. With paved access, a gated entrance, fruit trees, city water, a natural spring, and panoramic views at 3,700 feet elevation, this property delivers comfort, tranquility, and long-term value.
