Property Description

This gorgeous lot has two building sites on two different levels off a private road In Ojochal. It is a very peaceful location looking out over the mountains and valleys of the surrounding area. There is a creek in the neighborhood, a hiking trail, and rain forest surroundings! It also has public utilities up to the property (ASADA water and ICE electricity) and is ready to be built on at this moment. The owner also has two homes for sale on the same private road, so it is possible to build your perfect home in paradise and purchase another home to use as a rental property if you are interested. Ojochal is a very desirable area with many excellent restaurants, several beaches which are only 5 minutes away and several grocery stores... all which make it a very convenient area to live and enjoy the Pura Vida lifestyle that Costa Rica offers! This lot is priced to sell and won't last long with the convenient location and the fact that it is ready to be built on now.
