Property Description

Luxury Estate Residence located High in the Mountain offering a Breathtaking Ocean View and benefiting from the Refreshing Breezes of Mountain Elevation. This exquisite home was designed and built to offer luxurious living for the people who demand luxury even in a remote Tropical Setting. Built on two levels facing the ocean you will be witness to the exceptional sunsets through the house ... as much from the interior living and dining room and the master bedroom and even more so from the front terraces which offers full dining and living facilities for your enjoyment and relaxation. The pool and rancho are one level below and also facing the Pacific Ocean. The few photos we include barely show what this unique property is all about. The numerous bedrooms and bathrooms can accommodate family members and friends while providing a high level of privacy. The grounds are beautifully landscaped and numerous fruit trees have been planted next to the Live-in Caretaker House with 2 bedrooms and an opened living and dining area.
