Property Description

Casa Azul is conveniently located on the Manuel Antonio road about halfway between Quepos and Manuel Antonio. It is in a small development of lovely mediterranean style homes that blend a great location with amazing views and breezes. The main area is open and consists of the living, dining, and kitchen areas. There are many large Mediterranean style windows that provide a panoramic view. A door opens from the living area onto a full length balcony on the rear of the house. The views are amazing and go from breath taking mountain views to ocean and costal views that are hypnotizing. The home has four bedrooms. The Master has a an adjoining bath. There is a second bedroom is on the same level as the master. There is also a second bath on this level. A third bedroom is off the main level. The fourth bedroom is off the pool level and has its own bath. All bedrooms and the main living area are air conditioned.
