Property Description

Palmas Pacifica is one of Manuel Antonio's newest developments conveniently located 2 miles outside of Quepos and making this an ideal location for your next real estate investment. With extensive primary forest and plentiful wildlife and vegetation, this estate is a true naturalists paradise. The bright, spacious, and modern one bedroom apartments provide a fully equipped kitchen, a comfortable bedroom, and a modern living and dining area furnished with unique bamboo pieces from Bali. High vaulted ceilings made with precious local rosewood along with large windows and expansive sliding glass doors enhance the beauty and design of these apartments. Sit on the balcony with a cup of Costa Rica's finest coffee in hand while enjoying vistas of the surrounding tropical rain forest or explore the 40 acres of land in your backyard that is teeming with species of monkeys, butterflies, and plant life.
