Property Description

Private swimming hole, organic gardens, ocean view, and easy access makes this one of the best Coldwell Banker Dominical Costa Rica listing on the market today. This beautiful large ocean view house is located just five minutes to the highway and seven minutes to several amazing beaches. The house was renovated in 2013 and a permaculture design was put into place on over one of the property. A lot of the re-designed was created around the production of food utilizing the land to its maximum potential for sustainable food production and regenerating the soil to quality top soil. This three bedroom, two bathroom house has over 3000 square feet of construction space with a combination of a large outdoor patio areas and pool area. The pool has a covered private lounging area great for entertaining several guests or enjoying the sounds of the jungle. From the pool you can walk down to the river that borders the property and enjoy the natural private river pool with several small cascading waterfalls.
