Property Description

This is by far the best deal to be had in the area for an entry level property. $199,900 for 25 acres (10 hectares) and a two story one bedroom one bath home. The first floor has a two car garage. The second floor is a large wood porch, bed bath, kitchenette, and living. There is a great big storage shed here with an attached carport. There is plenty of room to expand on this property. Building coverage here is 70%. Furthermore, in front of this home there is a great building pad with a higher elevation that will afford a bigger ocean view. This home has a deep water well, electricity, and internet via an aircard with full 3G cel service. In the dry season you will have a direct 10 block walk to the beach. The property is directly next to a protected mangrove forest. Due to the elevation of the property it is located above the treetops of the forest and sees monkey's, parrots, and more at eye level.
