Property Description

Just reduced from $399K to $343,300!!!! Owners motivated to give this perfect home to a new family. This home is known as Casa del Bosque. Casa del Bosque is located in one of the coasts most coveted developments, Tierra Pacifica. This lovely residential community is truly in harmony with nature. In this tropical dry forest reserve all the cables are underground to accommodate the free passage of Howler Monkey's amongst others. This development has all the first world amenities that you are accustomed to. There is the area's largest and most equipped air conditioned gym, a lovely tiered pool for all ages, hot tub, community kitchen at the pool for events, yoga room, and tennis court. There are miles of nature trails on the property and an area dedicated to community gardening. The community also has top notch security 24 hours a day! Comparatively speaking, maintenance fees here are low for a community with so much infrastructure and so many amenities.
