Property Description

Ojochal has lots of unique homes but none compares to this rustic wood and river stone home. The minute you drive up it feels like you are in the country somewhere. The large ample yard lends itself for more expansion like some bed and breakfast cabins or an additional home. Legal water and electricity are not a problem as ICE and Ojochal ASADA lines run in front. There is a good size pool, jacuzzi, fish pond, rancho, and a greenhouse ready for use. Inside you will find 3 bedrooms with each having a full bath. There are lots of covered outdoor spaces as well to enjoy the sound of the river that flows behind the property. The kitchen is comfortable and spacious. The restaurants and activities are literally minutes away. With 2 wheel drive access, you will not have to worry about 4x4 roads or steep hills to get to the property and its walking distance to the grocery store and school. Ojochal has lots of amenities that make this house that much more attractive.
