Property Description

This large estate property is located a stones throw from downtown Quepos and the spectacular new Marina Pez Vela. Set on a hilltop and featuring a stunning 360 degree vista overlooking the dramatic Talamanca Mountains, whitewater views of the Pacific and the new marina. This iconic home is a unique opportunity that has just had a dramatic price reduction. The land has excellent access immediately off the main roadway, very workable topography and a direct line of sight to the ocean and marina, which is a 4 minute drive away. The home is situated on a hill with a commanding view of the surroundings in a private setting. Lush mature landscaping frames the great views. The home consists of a main residence and detached two bedroom suite and a large 3bed/3 bath separate guest home at the entrance to the estate. The main living space consists of a 2500 sq/ft single story 1 bedroom villa residence with a huge kitchen and living room.
