Property Description

This charming 2 bedroom home with additional building sites, is perched just above the quaint village of San Josecito, offering outstanding ocean and mountain views. The location offers easy access, incredible views of the Whales Tail and Cano Island, privacy without seclusion and perfect year round climate. Nearby rivers feature many crystal clear waterfalls. San Josecito is about 12 minutes from the main highway on a perfectly maintained road. Within the community is a small school, soccer field and communal area. It is an ideal mountain community sitting high above Uvita, yet only a little over 15 minutes to shopping and other commercial activities available in one of Costa Rica's most sought after locations. You or guest enjoying a stay at your property can be at the Marina Ballena National Park in less than 20 minutes to enjoy surfing, hiking the Whales Tail, snorkeling, Dolphin and Whale watching tours, Stand up Paddle Board tours, or any other fun activity available.
