Property Description

This lovely home up high in Tres Rios de Coronado is your private, tucked away gem with ocean and mountain views. Located just 10 minutes off the Costanera, it then positions you a very short drive to many pristine beaches, fabulous world class restaurants of Ojochal, and golf at the San Buenas Golf Resort. Perched on a small knoll you'll enjoy the big mountain and ocean views from the front of the house and massive virgin jungle views from the rear covered veranda in the back. What a great location for your morning smoothie or your afternoon gin and tonic while swaying side to side in your hammock. The home is a one bedroom, one bathroom with a large living area off the fully appointed kitchen. The plus with this home is a nice sized loft that can comfortably fit a King, Queen or two double beds with ample room for clothes, toys or just stuff you want tucked away. The loft and master bedroom both have ocean views for everyone's enjoyment.
