Property Description

A Seductive Spin on Tropical Living Enjoy the serenity of Costa Rica's warm climate in low-key luxury. This tropical modern home combines the clean lines and muted color palette of contemporary design with exotic woods and stones native to this region. Modern, clean lines create a blank canvas through which to experience the exhilaration of nature's wonders. Take in the breathtakingly expansive view as you set foot through the door of this mountain top home, which expertly frames the San Buenas river valley below. The functional design of the kitchen makes cooking a pleasure, especially when taking brief pauses to gaze out at your private pool scanning the bright blue horizon of the Pacific Ocean. Three spacious master king suites are accentuated with simple yet extravagant comfort and a diversity of vistas that include mountains, the ocean, and the surrounding whimsical community of Chontales.
