Property Description

House with infinity pool overlooking the gorgeous Achiote Point and Playa Hermosa below and you can even hear the waves!! The view is whitewater straight down from the house to the beach and that then stretches towards the south with Uvita's Whales Tail in the foreground and the Osa Peninsula on the horizon. You are located centrally between Dominical & Uvita and are about 5 minutes up from the beach. The house has a rustic feel with wooden shutters on the windows. The lower bedroom is large and opens to screened windows all around that look out onto the jungle and that allow for a constant cool ocean breezes. The downstairs is made up of the bedroom, bathroom, kitchen, living area and laundry. Upstairs is essentially an en suite master. There is a large area for the bedroom with an adjoining open air patio-like sitting area that looks out over the pool, beach, ocean and whales tail. The bathroom comes off of the patio area.
